Dear Friends

November seems a month well-suited to remembering. Perhaps it is the signs of autumn around us – falling leaves, the dark evenings and mornings, birds migrating, insects and animals hibernating. Time to remember the long, hot days of summer but also, often, those whose earthly life is over.

On the first day of November, we remember ‘All Saints’ – to which the churches in Sutton, Ramsholt and Hollesley are dedicated. ‘All Saints’ include not just those people who have officially been declared by the church to be saints because they were well known for their holiness. It includes all those who have influenced us for good; those who have taught us and demonstrated Christian faith and values. Many Christian churches also keep the next day 2nd November as ‘All Souls’ day, and remember all those who have died, especially those who have died in the last year.

On Remembrance Sunday we remember all those who lost their lives while serving their country in the armed forces. This year Remembrance Sunday actually falls on Armistice Day – 11th November and this is a special year as we commemorate the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War. We honour the memory of those men and women who gave their lives so that we might live in freedom and peace. The Armistice 100 exhibition in St Andrew’s Church, Alderton draws our attention to those from our villages who did return from the trauma of WW1, those for whom life would never be the same. The exhibition is well worth a visit if you haven’t already seen it; the church is open daily from 10am until 4pm and on 3rd, 4th, 10th and 17th November - refreshments will be available. There will be a Songs of Praise on 25th November at 3pm.

To ‘remember’ is not just a case of thinking about the past. The word has its roots in ‘re-remembering’ – putting something back together, rather like a jigsaw; bringing it into a present reality and making it relevant for today. Each Sunday – and many other days of the week too – Christians remember Jesus who also laid down his life for us, so that we could be freed from the fear of death and evil and experience a close and eternal relationship with God. In the bread and wine of the communion service we remember Jesus and his presence becomes real and relevant in today’s world. Let us re-member and be thankful this November.

Wishing you every blessing Ruth Hatchett

If you would like to provide a shoebox full of gifts for a child caught up in conflict or natural disaster, Samaritans’ Purse are sending shoeboxes again this Christmas. You can find instructions on how to pack a shoebox on the Samaritans Purse website or on the leaflets in any of our churches or Hollesley Village Hall. During the three weeks leading up to Christmas Eve, our knitted nativity scene will again be travelling around our villages looking for a stopping place each night. Each home will keep one of the little sheep until Christmas Eve when the sheep can all be brought to Hollesley or Sutton church for the Christmas Eve service to be reunited with their friends. You will need to make arrangements to pass the crib on to the next person on the list – after school perhaps? Please get in touch with me via telephone, email or Facebook if you would like to host the travelling crib. I will need your name, address & telephone number and any dates which would not be convenient. Revd Ruth Hatchett ruth.hatchett@yahoo.co.uk 01394 412052

JULIE WHITE

We are so sorry to record that Julie White from the White House, Church Lane died suddenly on the 11th October. She lived in Shottisham for 38 years, full time for the last 21 of them. She loved the house and the field and was only really happy while at home, keeping busy among the trees accompanied by her animals, Micah and Tibby. Horse racing, 20/20 cricket and Formula 1 were her delight, all watched on TV with a cheerful fire burning in the grate.

Everyone is welcome at her funeral, which is on Monday 29th October at 2 pm and afterwards at the White House, Church Lane.
